- When it comes to volunteers, use common sense. If someone wants to continue to volunteer, they can be put on a list at the village after a background check.
- Voted on whether or not to have sting art. We voted no and will notify the person in charge and let them know we are not interested.
- We have a new Commissioner, Deb Boehlen.

VI. Old Business

- Transition Summit - April 15th. Audra will be there from 8-11, and will have 4 students there during the Summit, so include them in the Lunch count. We will provide breakfast. If you can help out setting up breakfast, then be there by 8:00 am.
- Received a check for the food from Project Alex.

VII. New Business

- Suggested to send a thank you card signed by participants to Project Alex.
- Mary Ann informed us that she is on the Mental Health Board for Schaumburg Township and would like to have the commission provide feedback on what we see as needs for the Developmental Disabled community.
- First Friday for May will be Cinco de Mayo themed. Paul will go to Taco Bell and see what the cost is for the cheesy roll ups. Paul will give Judy the number to the bakery and Judy will contact the bakery to see the cost of mini churros.
