PRESS RELEASE (for release to official media only)

For immediate release – July 2, 2024

Incident: HEP24-003082

Home Invasion, Aggravated Discharge of a Firearm

Date/time of incident:

Monday, July 1, 2024, approximately 10:02 p.m.

Location of incident:

2000 block of Kettering Rd.

Description of incident:

On Monday, July 1, 2024, at 10:02 p.m. the Hoffman Estates Police Department responded to the 2000 block of Kettering Rd. for a report of a Home Invasion with shots fired. The incident appears to be an isolated incident and there are no offenders in custody currently.

Upon arrival to the scene, Officers observed the front door of the residence damaged, consistent with someone forcing entry into the residence. Officers were advised that the offenders had left the scene prior to their arrival. No victims were discovered; however, several bullet holes were observed in the drywall of the residence.

The offenders were described as 3 male blacks, with one wearing a red hoodie, one wearing a yellow hoodie, and one wearing a white hoodie. All subjects were reported to be wearing ski masks with one subject allegedly holding a semi-automatic handgun. The offenders were last seen running northbound from the scene. Early investigation revealed that the offenders possibly knew the residents and that they were targeted.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to contact the Hoffman Estates Police Department at (847)781-2800 or Detective Shaw.
