Chairperson's Report

Lillian reminded the commission to stay with the Robert's Rules for the meeting. Lillian mentioned the Schaumburg Library will be having a retirement fair on August 7th from 5-8pm. The commission will have a table there and pass out flyers.

Discussed updates for Senior Prom. Prom will be held on September 18th, from 5:30 - 8:00 pm. Kathy found a dance studio, Arthur Miller Dance Studio, and they have 1 person for 1 hour for $250. Jodi will work with High School for volunteers to help, Peg mentioned food from Garibaldis, $12 per person, food would be pork or chicken, potatoes, and finger foods. Event based off 100 people we could add appetizers for $3 more. Jodi mentioned she would contact Dance World and see about coming to have prom. They are at the Triphahn center every other Friday. Lillian and Jodi will check into sponsors at an event they are going to tomorrow. The Commission discussed having centerpieces, but it is not important but would be nice.

Next event is July 17th, which will be Bingo and Ice Cream. The start time is 1:30 pm. August will have Martina Mathisen as Mae West for entertainment. October will have a magician, and still planning November and December.

Staff Liaison Report

Lunch is paid in full for tomorrow. Monica will not be at the next meeting, so Audra will attend in her place.

Old Business

Discussed in chairperson's report.

New Business

Kathy confirmed tomorrow's luncheon details, Garibaldi's for lunch and a barbershop quartet for entertainment.
